THE TIMES.

A. H. CLEMENT EDITOR.

WEDNESDAY, AUG. 8, 1906.

And now they say there is a "flaw" in old man Sage's will, and we are not surprised to hear it. Mr. Tilden, the great lawyer, failed to make a will that would stand the tests of astute and well-feed attorneies, and it is not surprising that this mere money-maker should have failed too. He hoarded the millions and now lawyers and litigants will have a "high old time" distributing it. The old man may "turn over in his grave," but the schemes of the dust died with him and "the places that once knew him will know him no more forever." How foolish not to have gotten more of happiness out of his wealth, and yet his supreme satisfaction may have been found in grasping another dollar.

There will be "hot times" in New York this fall. Already the forces of Jerome and Hearst are lining up for battle and mutterings of the coming storm are heard on every side. By the way Hearst has a party of his own, and yet asks the Democrats to come to his rescue. We never admired Mr. Randolph Hearst but when a majority of the Democrats of the country say he is worthy to be their candidate for the Presidency, we are going to support him. Democracy "wasn't born to die," but it will die without Democratic support.

The Court of Appeals very promptly ordered the Corporation Commission to administer the oath and allow Col. Button to enter upon the discharge of his duties as Commissioner of Insurance. The office is one of the most important in the State, as more men, women and children of this age are interested in life insurance than ever before in the world's history. Virginia through her representatives should look to the interests of her people in this regard. Politics all to the rear and business to the front.

"They say" that Mr. Fairbanks will capture the Southern vote in Convention. He has the "barrel" and it may be true. Speaking of the barrel reminds us that the Republicans are already using a call to the rank and file for at least a "dollar a head." Now the authorities will learn how much the "faithful" can be relied on. It would be interesting to watch at least one political campaign from which the money-god was eliminated, and the millenium would be interesting too.

They are preparing for a National fox hunt down in old Powhatan. The campaign will open on the 5th of September and it is expected that President Roosevelt and Governors Glenn and Swanson will be of the party. The dogs are in excellent training and the local hunters are "spiling" for the fun. The Mecklenburg variety wont "be in it." Southside is "God's country," and Moses Hunter and Jim Driskill with their packs always get the brush.

Mr. Bryan has stirred even London to its depths by his outburst of matchless eloquence. His reference to the "noble life and heroic death" will live long in the memories of those who heard him utter the words. Strange that a man with a world of men for an audience would be willing to hold office and become the servant of the people.

It is very important that the new-comers be well treated by our people. So writes Commissioner Kouser to Governor Swanson, from England where he has gone to induce immigration to Virginia. This suggestion to the Governor seems to be most unnecessary. Virginians, Mr. Koiner are not in the habit of treating people otherwise.

It is with Mr. Rockefeller as it was with the late Dr. Talmage, "the best thing about going abroad is coming home." The oil king was so glad to get home that he actually drove through a rain to church services. A little water on the front steps is generally enough to keep folks from church.

We have nothing to do with the Georgia fight, but if Democratic testimony is to be relied on neither one of the prominent aspirants for the Governorship is worthy the support of the Democrats of that great state. The party of the immortals is too great to be represented by men so small.

The Czar dissolves the Douma and yet his country seems doomed.

The tariff will furnish battle cry of stirring sort but a National fight with "good roads" as the subject for discussion and decision would shake this country from centre to circumference. Let it come and with all its interest and vigor.

Railroad authorities will do well to remember that telephones must be installed in ticket offices and agents must be generally polite and quick to holler in response to the "hello" call. The world is getting better.

Much is being written on the subject of our swamp lands. Why not pay attention to the lands already in sight and mend our ways? Looking for new jobs, while old ones are neglected is'nt just sensible.

What does Mr. Cleveland think of Mr. Bryan this time? If he has time from his fishing corks he might speak out before the meeting takes place. United Democracy means victory in 1908.

If you have something to tell or something to sell let the readers of the TIMES know about it. Bargains are always in demand and good news is better than old wine.

The conviction deepens that it will be Roosevelt v s Bryan. "When Greek meets Greek " "Lay on McDuff and d——n be he who first cries, hold, enough."

That cat and dog fight between Georgia Democrats has been disgraceful from start, and will be to finish.

"All things come to him who waits"—the "two-cent rate" among other things.

Manteo.

If I am any judge of a crowd there was a very good size one at Buckingham court on July 31st. We were glad to find that Mrs. Spencer was still giving the public a 50 cent dinner for 25 cents.

Mr. H. B. Taylor is in Powhatan county this week visiting his father Mr. R. S. Taylor.

Miss Sallie Mill Sutton is spending some time in Richmond and Norfolk visiting friends.

Mr. Benjamin Boatwright is very much missed in the neighborhood this summer, as he has accepted a position in Danville.

The firm of J. C. Parish & Bro. has recently painted the house or 'Traveller's Rest,' the home of the Misses Horsley. It was the former home of Maj. Charles Yancey and a portion of it was built in 1740. If you want a nice joy of painting get it at Perrow Evans & Co. and get J. C. Pariah & Bro. to rub it on.

Mr. David Martin, of Richmond, was a visitor at the home of Mr. S. B. Gibson this week.

Among those who attended the Association at Sharon church were: Mr. and Mrs. John W. Layne, Mr. B. B. Taylor, Mrs. A. C. Horsley and son, A. C., Jr.

We are glad to report Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Patteson out again after quite a severe spell.

Miss Sallie Gantt, of the Old Dominion hospital, is staying at the home of the Misses Glover.

Mr. Walter Simpson, of Midway Mills, is spending some time with his sister, Mrs. William Brown at Luanna, Va.

Miss Connie Hartsook, of Richmond, is the guest of Miss Lizzie Camm Patteson, at 'Mt. Pleasants.'

Mrs. A. P. Gilmer, of Scottsville, is spending a month with her brother, G. W. Patteson and daugeter Mrs. A. C. Horsley.

Wheat and oats turned out very well and corn and tobacco are looking fine in this community. Melons also are coming. Come down Mr. Editor and we will look in them and see what is to come out.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address

Among the waiters it appears that there was another couple who desired to celebrate the rites of matrimony, and Mr. Kennard the officiating minister was handed the license and Miss Juddie Smith and Mr. Jno. W. Wright were soon pronounced one. Mr. Wright is carrier on R. F. D. No. 1. May the joy of the world be ever with these people who have solemnly pledged their lives to one another.

He neglected to take Foley's Kidney Cure at the first signs of kidney trouble, hoping it would wear away, and he was soon a victim of Bright's disease. There is danger in delay, but if Foley's Kidney Cure is taken at once the symptoms will disappear the kidneys will strengthen and you are soon sound and well. A. R. Bass of Morgantown, Ind., had to get up ten or twelve times in the night, and had a severe backache and pains in the kidneys, and was cured by Foley's Kidney Cure.

Fortunately I insisted upon having Foley's Honey and Tar and it quickly cured me. My wife has since used Foley's Honey and Tar with the same success."
